YULETIDE FROM E. I. E. R. E. 2020: A YEAR FROM HELL, for most of us. From its designer &

its proud editor, Rachel Booth, or
'Rag' – as the family called me,
ALL have any of you got nick names too–?

Why not look up what they mean or obviously may be/or are.

Have u been treated accordingly?

Rag or 'Ragou'~ in full is thee it transpires, the angel of justice and Ra is some kind of God of the Underworld I discovered while reading a book on Ancient Egypt; my middle name Clair means clarity, my brothers Dominic was Dom the bomb and he did turn out to be very wealthy, at some point anyway; and one of my darling {Not}sisters, despite all the work and sacrifices undertaken for her Charlotte the harlot'.... Um m maybe spelt wrong oh & ALSO REFERRED to,

LOVINGLY OF COURSE TO, AS 'Lotty the Potty' which she was good at acting up to, very: they all warned me, but acute manipulation & Utter self-centredness is not my strong point.

May/& do some of these things and 'tag' s come true ...

Including 'The self-fulfilling prophecy'

Oh, oh h BEWARE. They do!

We hope to have just a few more pages to add by the Very start of May, 4/5. And maybe 2/3more interesting pictures but a blog will be in use so feel free to explore ... & comment.

{This includes What's to come as per previously ~ Not to May 2020 now due to unforeseen circumstances}.

I was also going to talk about issues and theories from Einstein, not that I know hardly anything, and his theory on time, & Durkheim (A Functionalist), & on his theories of suicide [As suicide of males under 49 in the UK count as thee biggest killer in men, which Should be addressed et al & has also 'eiere -ly' gone up here a business owner told me last year; as I found out and my beloved deceased real friends, and in other places some more than others sadly did too... Very unacceptable would you not say? Just in case you are feeling left out ...

[116 123 Samaritans even 111 can/do help we hear just in case your mood drops amidst all the earthly 'festivities' some will be having. Maybe not you.

We will be thinking of you].

Then in this last mini-essay for many months+ I was thinking of discussing or pulling to bits some of the pod casts on radio two,

Though I must admit a recent philosopher who was on a few weeks ago, one can d/load it if one likes; -

Was discussing how we are all just living stories and actors in some kind of narrative mainly other's narratives and stories we are told and that is how mankind is So apparently effective at communicating in a group over the 'animals' which we still are; - but we are stupider as we are [& crueller]. As whatever you think I had to laugh as the guy on the radio show told the presenter other animals are not as stupid as humans, for example - a: monkey would not give away his banana for another piece of paper in the jungle nor believe all he was told, like you have to register your births and pay car taxes'; they would not 'consent' to that.

Nor are they stupid enough to enact the part of other's stories and live by it, i.e., We are all subjects of the Crown. Things we are told often by 'psychopaths' or power-driven - autocrats, and do everything were told to. He also referred to different types of governments and dictatorship's and such like.

It sounds pretty similar to me like 'social valorisation' & Darwinism. It is all very interesting. To some!

Richard Madeley's citations is on their too & other's views on life and it's structural & inherent hegemony & idiosyncrasies'... there are talks about the meaning of life and all sort's ... but Remember the spirit of free thinking as well.

Callousness, coldness to others nor conceit are Not to be fostered in self-interest- But for God's sake them that's guilty ~

Please practise a little restraint you're not here to make other's lives a Misery!

WHAT GIVES YOU THE RIGHT?!

Instead practise Kindness/consideration & communalism. Or go away one has HAD ENOUGH & keep you're/their relatives Criticism of those who are guilty to a minimum unless they are aware or been where you have, in cancer surgery and biopsies alone forgotten like many and abandoned like pet's specially over this period of Christless-mas, it sickens me all this!

Hypocrisy at best.

Us folk Not spoiled by their parent s & sat at home most of the day winging all day! Often wonder ~ How can society work properly when you lot are be-little-ing and telling untruths, whining to get what they want, everyone else's 'share of the pie' at any cost & maybe other's lives too?!

HEY 'OUR LIVES MATTER TOO'!

HOW DARE YOU ALL ROMANS COUNTRY MEN AND CITIZENS AND BACK OFF

Any wonder 'CATVID 19' [oops meant COVID 19] is seeking its revenge. /I am Bitterly Sorry for those who have loved and lost and in particular the doctors and others who came out of retirement to help. I did work in 3 NHS hospitals and for scope etc and they have bad hours and it really is a calling. I did not like it at the professional level while in training.

They are little angels of mercy in times of GREAT distress.

COVID19 is Real- do not be misguided by conspiracy theories or other, I have seen a lot of death & suffering & Bless you all who/if read it in & for the New Year.

Very lastly three/Four things: -

- a. Remember what Toynbee (if spelt right) & other great men including what Winston Churchill tried to teach us All - it is about us, we the collective not just your & others selfish desires.

- b. And' We will fight you on the beaches, we will fight you on the....' and so on and so forth – WHAT HAPPENED TO TOGETHERNESS AND TRUTHS?
- c. Benthamism & Humanist theories have lessons we should learn. Or maybe Armageddon will gobble us all up: Sooner or later. It is Not Looking Good. Commented [RB1]:
- d. – you cannot take it with you your riches to the g r a v e ... to your eternal resting place whatever or where-ever you believe.
- e. SOME OF US ARE IN A STATE OF ANOMIE - Merton WAS CORRECT.

[OH, AN WATCH YA'S BACK'S of course; 'HARD TIMES' eh ... – {Dickens C. ...}]!

VERY LSTLY for/in 2020 [TO Start of May 2021] – a visual ten images of COVID, people, events & thing's Not to forget 2020 for.

INCLUDING MY FAMILIES & relatives including disenfranchised and disowned ones; our very own [passed away like so many other's] which of course include, our father Thomas Geoffrey Booth, and ALL OUR 'FAVE' MAN OF THE YEAR;
